

Agriculture Living-Learning Community

NEWSLETTER

WELCOME!

What is a living-learning community?

A living-learning community (LLC) is a group of students who share a common academic or theme interest and live together in a residence hall. Residence Life partners with faculty and staff across campus to implement special programming related to the LLC focus. Students living in the LLC also have the opportunity to get to know these partners outside of the classroom.

What should I expect as part of the LLC?

Your RA will have information about a variety of activities and resources related to the topic of your LLC and academic support. Plan on being involved in various events and share your ideas for future programming! The more involved you are with the community, the more benefits you'll gain.

MEET YOUR RA

Katelyn Sisk Major: Animal Science

Hello! My name is Katelyn Sisk, and I'll be the RA for the Scholars 3rd Floor Agriculture LLC. I'm an Animal Science major on the pre-vet track with a minor in Companion Animal Science. I'm originally from southeast Illinois, and this will be my second year at Missouri State—but my first year as an RA! I love being involved on campus, especially through our Collegiate Farm Bureau chapter, and I'm proud to be part of the College of Agriculture! Some of my favorite things to do are hiking, reading, swimming, and hanging out with friends. I'm so excited to see what fun this year has in store and can't wait to meet you all!

Meet your LLC partner!

Clara Dickinson

Agricultural Communications

Hi! I am Clara Dickinson, an Instructor of Agricultural Communications and the advisor for ACT – Agricultural Communicators of Tomorrow! I am also an alumnus of the Missouri State University College of Agriculture. In addition to teaching, I work to create resources for Missouri value-added agriculture producers and help run the College of Agriculture social media. When not at work, you can usually find me spending time with my two corgis, reading, or being crafty. I also enjoy photography and traveling, especially when I can incorporate them into my work here at the university! I look forward to getting to know you during your time here at Missouri State, and my door is always open!
