Scott Handley

LLC Partner & Associate Director of the Honors College

Welcome to the Honors Community! My name is Scott Handley. I am the Associate Director of the Honors College and one of your academic advisors. I earned my B.A. in History from the Honors College at Texas Tech University in 1997 and my M.A. in German & European Studies from Georgetown University in 2000. My academic interests include 19th & 20th century European history, German politics, and political integration within the European Union. I have lived and traveled in Europe and the Middle East. I serve as the primary academic advisor for all undeclared students in the Honors College and assist students with all aspects of academic planning, including progress toward graduation, major selection, course registration, and preparation for graduate study. I also advise students on competitive national scholarships and fellowship opportunities.

What should I expect as part of the LLC?

Meet Your RAs!

Erin Ashford

Major: History

Hello everyone! My name is Erin Ashford and I will be your Resident Assistant for the Honors LLC. I am from St. Peters Missouri and I am majoring in History with an emphasis in education. This will be my first full year as an RA, but it will be my third year in the Honors College. I am currently the Treasurer of the Anthropology Club and a Bears LEAD Ambassador. I love going to campus events, going for walks, and doing puzzles in my free time. I love going to the botanical gardens during their various events and my favorite area is the Japanese Stroll garden. I am so excited to meet all of you!

David Steel

Major: Mechanical Engineering

Hi! I'm David Steel and I will be your RA for the second floor Honors Living-Learning Community (LLC) in Scholars House. I am a senior studying mechanical engineering and am originally from Kansas City. Some of my interests include playing the bagpipes, fencing, and programming. As an RA, I'm here to help with any questions or concerns you might have about campus life, academics, the Missouri State website, and anything else you'd want to talk about! I want to ensure that you all are well-equipped adjusting to Missouri State and will do whatever I can to help you guys live comfortably! I'll also be updating you all about different events on our floor and around campus. I'm really excited to meet you all and have a great year together!
